

The Charles Causley Trust Young Person's Poetry Competition

1. The Charles Causley Young Person's Poetry Competition is free to enter and open to all young people aged between 5 and 18 years old who are based in Cornwall.
2. Your poem must be written in English and be related to the theme of 'Heritage: shining a light on Cornish roots'.
3. The competition closes at midnight (UK time) on 31st December 2026.
4. There will be 3 prizes awarded for each age category – each receiving a book token and a copy of a Charles Causley poetry book. The winners of the 16-18 year old category will also receive a Launceston Poetry Festival pass, giving them free access to all events. The first place winners of each category will be awarded with a family membership to English Heritage.
5. Winners will be notified in March 2027 and invited to an award ceremony at the Launceston Poetry Festival, where winners will be able to read their successful poems.
6. The age categories are: 5 - 10, 11 - 15 and 16 – 18.
7. There is no limit to the number of entries you can make.
8. Your poem should be up to 40 lines long. The title and lines between verses aren't included in the 40-line limit.
9. Please keep your poem anonymous and ensure your name is nowhere on the file text or document name.
10. Please scan your poem and send it to rita.camposteixeira@causleytrust.org !
11. If you really can't make an online entry, you can post your poem(s) to:
The Charles Causley Trust, Young Person's Poetry Competition 2025: 2, Cyprus Well,
Ridgegrove Hill, Launceston, Cornwall, PL15 8BT
12. Be sure to add a completed entry form with your poem(s). One entry form can be used to cover multiple entries.
13. We can't return entries, so do keep a copy of your entry.
14. The copyright of the winning poems remains with you; however, we'd love to share winning poems online and in print.
15. The winners will be posted on the Charles Causley Trust website: www.causleytrust.org.
